

Finance/Management Semester in Zurich Spring 2018

Tentative Travel Dates:

February 1—June 30, 2018

Application Deadline: September 15, 2017

Courses: Investments, Corporate Fin., Int. Mktg., European Banking, German, VT Study Abroad (MGT: Int. Bus., Entrepreneurship, Project Mgmt., German, Study Abroad)

Contacts:

Dr. George Morgan
1023 Pamplin Hall
(540) 231-7380
gmorgan@vt.edu

Linda Tanko
1046 Pamplin Hall
(540) 231-3562
ltanko@vt.edu

Costs:

Tuition is VT Tuition. Estimated total costs will be $19,900 in state, $28,429 out of state (gross) – Only $7,200-$9,400 more than a semester at VT in Blacksburg.

 VirginiaTech
Pamplin College of Business

BENEFITS OF THIS PROGRAM @ ZHAW

- ◇ Immerse yourself in Swiss culture at a global financial hub
- ◇ Explore the world while still being a Virginia Tech student
- ◇ Expand your world view and build cultural competency
- ◇ Stay on track to graduate with core finance courses plus senior elective
- ◇ Low net cost to spend 5 months in Europe
- ◇ Studying abroad doesn't change your job prospects, but you may come back a different person!

PROGRAM FEATURES

- ◇ Take the same courses as you would at VT
- ◇ Junior core courses (FIN 3144, 3154)
- ◇ @ Zurich School of Applied Science
- ◇ All courses transfer to Tech for credit
- ◇ Not included in your GPA
- ◇ Swiss experience: The Alps, the lakes, raclette, chocolate, efficient train travel
- ◇ Easy access for travel all over Europe – explore beautiful Switzerland, too
- ◇ Live w/ students from around the world
- ◇ Excursions: chocolate company, cheese company, Swiss ski resort, waterfalls, art and history museums*
- ◇ Management majors take electives toward their graduation requirements

PROGRAM DEADLINES

VT Application Deadline: Sept. 15, but apply early in May. A non-refundable deposit is required upon ZHAW acceptance

No limit (max or min) on number of students

*schedule subject to change